

Michael Eric Goodman

November 2, 1942 - October 27, 2021

BANGOR - Michael Eric Goodman, 78, died unexpectedly October 27, 2021, at his home in Bangor. He was born November 2, 1942, in Bangor, the son of Samuel S. Goodman and Hilda (Friedman) Goodman.

Mike graduated from Georgetown University in 1965, and from Boston College Law School in 1968. During law school, he married Bunny Braveman and following graduation, they returned to Bangor, started a family, and he joined his older brother in his law firm, which became Goodman & Goodman and later Goodman, Goodman & Kornrieck. Following many years of practicing law, he decided to turn his attention to other pursuits.

Throughout his adult life, he enjoyed camping with his family on Mount Desert Island, photographing wildlife, and in his later years, spending time with his six grandchildren, recycling, jokes from the campfire and eating copious amounts of junk food.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by a brother, James. Surviving in addition to his ex-wife, are his daughter, Leah Salow and her husband, Greg, and their three sons, Drew, Charlie and Nick, all of South Portland; and his son, Joshua Goodman and his wife, Ingrid Schroffner, and their three children, Jake, Ari, and Annika, all of Newton, Massachusetts; his sisters, Rhonda Grodberg and Hannah Obstler (Alan); his sister-in-law, Margie, and many nieces and nephews.

A graveside funeral service will be held 11 a.m. Sunday, October 31, at Beth Israel Cemetery, Severance Rd., Bangor. Those who wish to remember Mike in a special way may make gifts in his memory to Beth Israel Synagogue, P.O. Box 1509, Bangor, ME. 04402-1509. Condolences to the family may be expressed at BrookingsSmith.com.

Rhoda Shur

June 14, 1936 - November 15, 2021

BROOKLINE, MASS. - Rhoda Shur, 85, passed away peacefully at her home, with loved ones by her side, on Monday November 15, 2021, in Brookline, MA. Rhoda was born on June 14, 1936, in Bangor, ME, the daughter of Jacob and Violet (Rubin) Shur.

Rhoda happily spent her entire childhood in Island Falls, ME. After graduating from Island Falls High School, she initially pursued a bachelor's degree at the University of Maine. Her interest in business, sparked by her father, led her to move to Boston to pursue a career in the financial world. After graduating from business school, she started working for Merrill Lynch. Over the next 40+ years Rhoda enjoyed a career in finance until she retired from Morgan Stanley in 1995. Her passion for finance continued well past retirement.

In the condominium where she lived for more than 50 years, Rhoda developed many long-term friendships and played a vital role as a trustee to help improve the financial stability of the association.

For pleasure, Rhoda enjoyed badminton, family gatherings and travel, especially to Foxwoods and Aruba. Through her many visits to Aruba, Rhoda was able to develop relationships that lasted well past her last visit to the island.

In 1989 Rhoda reunited with her childhood friend, Richard "Ollie" Morin, who then became the love of her life. From that day on they had a storybook romance which lasted 30 wonderful years. For the time they were together, she always had a smile on her face.

Rhoda is survived by her sister, Harriet (Shur) Swankin; her niece, Sheryl Swankin and husband, Steven; her nephew, Steven Shur and fiancée, Kelly Acheson; and her sister-in-law, Brenda Shur. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her soulmate, Richard "Ollie" Morin; and her brother, Arthur Shur.

A graveside service will take place at 1 p.m. Thursday, November 18, 2021, at Beth Israel Cemetery, 72 Severance St., Bangor, ME. Those who wish to remember Rhoda in a special way may make gifts in her memory to the Dana Farber Cancer Institute, Boston, MA. Condolences to the family may be expressed at BrookingsSmith.com.
