Harry Goodman

3 Harry Goodman of 226 Hammond street died at his home early last night at the age of 68 years. He came 9 from Russia when a young man and 1 had been engaged as a leather merchant for the past 36 years. For many years he had a store in Exchange street.

1 He is survived by four daughters, Sadie, Mollie, Ross, Adele, and two sons, Joe and Sam, several nephews and nieces.

1 He was a man of sterling character, 1 honest in all his dealings and widely 1 known and respected. He had a wide circle of friends who will join the bereaved children in mourning his loss.
