

MRS. SARAH UNOBSKEY

Friends heard with deep regret the passing of Mrs. Sarah Unobskey, widow of the late Joseph Unobskey, which occurred Thursday evening, November 14, 1935, following a heart attack. She was 57 years of age.

Born in Snovsk, Russia in 1887, Mrs. Unobskey came to this country about 30 years ago, living in Eastport for seven years before coming to Calais. She was head of the Unobskey firm in this city and one of the leading businesswomen of this section. Although the active managers of the business were her sons, Arthur and Charles Unobskey yet no important business transactions were completed without her advice and guidance.

Mrs. Unobskey was a keen businesswoman and was familiar with every phase of their varied business and the success of the firm was due in great part to her initiative and foresight.

She took a keen interest in the development of Calais, and buildings erected under her direction added much to the appearance of the business section. On the State Theatre block, with the exception of the theatre itself, all plans were drawn by Mrs. Unobskey. She had faith in this city and although times were particularly hard and against the advice of her sons, built the Unobskey Professional Building, which has justified that faith.

She was always charitable, and many people were helped through her generosity in their time of need. Her greatest attribute was her devotion to her family, and her untiring helpfulness on their behalf.

She was active in the Jewish religious life of this community and was the major support of the Jewish Synagogue, which is named after her late husband, Joseph Unobskey. She will be greatly missed by her many friends.

She leaves to mourn their loss three sons, Arthur and Charles Unobskey of Calais and Dr. William Unobskey of New York City, one brother, Mr. Morris Holland of Calais and two sisters, Mrs. Louis Unobskey of Lubec and Mrs. Sam Greenstein of Boston.

Services were held from the home of Mr. Sam Rudman of Bangor with the Rabbi of the Calais Synagogue and the Chief Rabbi of the Bangor Synagogue officiating. Interment was in the Bangor Jewish Cemetery.
