

MISS JAY DENNIS

BANGOR — Miss Jay Dennis, 84, a resident of New York City for many years, formerly of Bangor, died Nov. 6, 1984, at a New York City hospital. She was born in Bangor, Nov. 30, 1899, the daughter of Samuel and Eva (Goldman) Dennis. She was educated at Boston University, Hunter College of New York and New York University. Miss Dennis retired after many years as director of fund raising and public relations for the Seaman's Church Institute of New York. Surviving are three sisters, Bess Dennis of New York City, Sylvia Dennis and Alfreda (Dennis) Segal, both of Bangor; one brother, Arthur E. Dennis of Philadelphia; several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by a sister, Rachel (Dennis) Lipsky of Bangor. Funeral services will be held 12 noon Thursday at the Jewish Funeral Chapel, Center Street, Bangor, with Rabbi Joseph Schonberger officiating. Interment will be in Tifereth Israel Cemetery, Bangor. Arrangements by Brookings-Smith. 4134