

PHILIP NISENBAUM

BANGOR — Philip Nisenbaum, 85, widower of Molly R. Nisenbaum, died May 19, 1991, at a Bangor hospital after a long illness. He was born in Russia May 10, 1906, the son of Louis and Celia (Stadler) Nisenbaum. Philip was a member of Congregation Beth Abraham, the B'nai B'rith and the Brotherhood of Beth Abraham. Surviving are two brothers, Simon Nisenbaum of Tamarac, Fla., and Robert Nisenbaum of North Easton, Mass.; several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 21, 1991, at the Jewish Funeral Chapel, Center Street, Bangor, with Rabbi Henry Isaacs officiating. Interment will be in Tifereth Israel section of Beth Israel Cemetery, Bangor. Memorial week will be observed at 52A Essex St., Bangor. Friends who wish may contribute in Philip's memory to Congregation Beth Abraham, 145 York St., Bangor 04401, or to a charity of one's choice. Arrangements by Brookings-Smith, Bangor.

PHILIP NISENBAUM

BANGOR — Funeral services for Philip Nisenbaum will be held 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Jewish Funeral Chapel, Center Street, Bangor, with Rabbi Henry Isaacs officiating. Interment will be in Tifereth Israel Section of Beth Israel Cemetery, Bangor. Arrangements by Brookings-Smith, Bangor.