

Cyrus Schiro, Prominent Bangor Merchant, Dies

Cyrus Schiro, 71, prominent Bangor merchant and resident for 55 years, died March 30 at a local hospital. He was associated with his sons, Albert J. and Sidney W. in the operation of the Bangor Shoe store and the Standard Shoe store.

Surviving him are his wife, Sarah L.; three sons, Albert J., Sidney W. and Dr. Harold S. Schiro of Cincinnati, Ohio; two daughters, Mrs. Irving N. Levine of New Rochelle, N. Y. and Mrs. Robert C. Baker of New York City; a brother, A. M. Schiro of Bar Harbor; a sister, Mrs. J. M. Ross of Portland; seven grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at the residence, 134 Cumberland street, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Died: March 29, 1946