

BENJAMIN BRAVEMAN

BANGOR — Benjamin Braveman, 88, husband of the late Doris Braveman, and a lifelong resident of Bangor, died Jan. 29, 1997. He was born July 5, 1908, the son of Jacob and Lena Braveman. Bennie, a devoted family man, is survived by his children, Bunny Goodman and her husband, Michael, Norman Braveman and his wife, Marilyn, all of Bangor, Susan Flaschner and her husband, Alan, of Toledo, Ohio. Survivors also include grandchildren, Jonathan and Mark Braveman, Leah and Joshua Goodman, Sherri Flaschner Finn and Scott Flaschner; three great-grandchildren; sisters, Gertrude Podolsky, Sara Melnick, Helen Rolsky and Muriel Marcia Braveman; several nieces, nephews and cousins. Bennie was a partner in the former Braveman Tire Co. and for many years traveled through Maine selling his wares. He was a member of Beth Israel Synagogue. Ben was a friend to many and will be missed by all. Funeral services will be held 2 p.m. Friday at the Jewish Funeral Chapel, Center Street, Bangor. Memorial week will be observed at the home of Norman Braveman, 66 Howard St., Bangor, beginning Saturday night. The family requests that any gifts be made to Beth Israel Synagogue, 144 York St., Bangor 04401. A service of Brookings-Smith, Bangor.