

BENJAMIN OPPENHEIM

Benjamin Oppenheim, 70, Rumford businessman for over 20 years, died Sunday in a local hospital.

He had resided here for more than 23 years at 169 Broadway. A native of Chelsea, Mass., he was born in 1891.

Mr. Oppenheim was a member of Beth Israel Congregation.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Frances S. Oppenheim; four sons, Edward E. of Silver Springs, Md., Major Murray L. of Eau Gallie, Fla., Joseph B. of Bangor, and Robert L. of Baltimore; a sister, Miss Clara Oppenheim of Brookline, Mass; a brother, Lawrence of Milton, Mass.; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at one o'clock this afternoon at the United Jewish Chapel, Center Street, Bangor, with Rabbi Avraham H. Freedman officiating.