

CAROL ANNE KAPROW

BOYNTON BEACH, FL, AND BANGOR - Carol Anne Kaprow, 73, of Boynton Beach, FL, passed away peacefully and unexpectedly at her home on January 24, 2018. She was born in Bangor on July 28, 1944, the daughter of Ralph and Rosemary Malcolm.

After graduating from Bangor High School, Carol Anne exercised her passion in direct patient care through various roles within the medical field. She was a member of Beth Israel Synagogue where she also served as a part of the Chevrah Kadisha. Carol Anne enjoyed reading, staying informed on current events, and above all, spending time with family and friends. She married her soul mate, Michael B. Kaprow, of Bangor, on August 8, 1988.

Left to honor and remember Carol Anne are her beloved parents, Ralph and Rosemary Malcolm; spouse, Michael; their three children, Arney Molloy of Summerville, SC, Tammy Moore and her husband, Michael, of Summerville, SC, and Robert Rosewall and his wife, Heather, of Biddeford; her four grandchildren, Hannah Lyons and Abigail Boulier of Bangor, Allyson Molloy of Yarmouth, and Holly Rosewall of Biddeford; her sister, Constance Hollifield of Zebulon, NC; her brother, Ralph Malcolm and his wife, Sharon, of Cumberland; and sister-in-law, Gail Ginsberg and her husband, Bob, of Trumbull, CT; and her cherished aunts, uncles, nieces, and cousins. We will always remember our beloved mother for her sense of humor, openness of adventure, contagious smile and her willingness to reach out to others. You will be loved and missed by all.
