

CHARLES DAVID MADDEN

MILLINOCKET, Feb. 10.—Charles David Madden, 62, died Monday at a Miami, Fla., hospital.

Madden was born in Lynn, Mass. September 25, 1896. He attended the schools of Lynn.

He lived most of his life in Millinocket. He owned a hardware store here for 45 years and was the proprietor of a mill at Grindstone. Madden was a member of the Millinocket Chamber of Commerce.

He was a member of Nollesemitic Masonic Lodge and Anah Temple Shrine of Bangor.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Gladys Madden, and a daughter, Mrs. Marilyn Morgan, of Millinocket; two sons, William of Millinocket and Richard of Mead-er, Pa.; two brothers, Benjamin and Harry of Lynn, Mass., and five grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at the Jewish Chapel in Bangor. Rabbi A. H. Freedman officiating, at a time to be announced.

Interment will take place at Beth Israel cemetery, Bangor.