

CHARLES E. WOLMAN

Charles E. Wolman, 68, of 23 High Street, Waterville, and chief clerk of the Waterville office of the Maine Central Railroad, died Thursday at a Waterville hospital.

Born in Waterville July 4, 1899, he was the son of Samuel and Annie (Levine) Wolman.

Mr. Wolman was a member of the Elks Club of Waterville, the Brotherhood of Railroad Clerks, and the Railroad Veterans Club.

Surviving are his wife, Margaret (Sheerin) Wolman of Waterville; a daughter, Miss Maureen Wolman of Waterville; two sons, Michael and William, both of Waterville; two brothers, William Wolman of Houston, Texas, and Dr. Aaron Cook of Waterville; two sisters, Mrs. Ada Sanger of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Frances Saltz of Swampscott, Mass.; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held today at 2 p.m., at the Jewish Funeral Chapel, Bangor, with interment at Beth Israel cemetery, Bangor.

Services will be conducted by Rabbi Philip Goodman of Beth Israel Synagogue, Waterville.