

DOROTHY (BROWN) POLAKEWICH

BANGOR — Dorothy (Brown) Polakewich, 83, died May 25, 1988, at a Bangor healthcare center. She was born in Randolph, April 18, 1905, the daughter of Abraham and Fannie (Goldberg) Brown. Mrs. Polakewich attended UMO. She and her husband were co-owners of Lincoln Dry Goods in Lincoln and later Milo Dry Goods in Milo and the Style Shop in Dover-Foxcroft. Mrs. Polakewich was a member of the Congregation Beth Israel and a life member of the OES No. 112 of Lincoln. Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Bernard (Shirley) Shriro and one son, Irving Paul, both of Bangor; five grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; one sister, Irene Cooper of Bangor; several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by a brother, Dr. Eugene Brown. Private funeral services were held Wednesday at Beth Israel Cemetery, Bangor. Gifts in her memory may be sent to Stillwater Healthcare for Alzheimer's Patients' Fund, 335 Stillwater Ave., Bangor. Arrangements by Brookings-Smith, 133 Center St., Bangor.