

MRS. EMMA LEVINE

Mrs. Emma Levine, 85, of Bangor and Old Town, died unexpectedly Tuesday at a local hospital.

She was born November 6, 1881, in White Russia. She came to Bangor more than 50 years ago as a young widow with three children and operated her own dry goods business.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Ben Sklar, Old Town; a son, Samuel Levine, Bangor; a sister, Mrs. Dora London, New York; eight grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

She was a member of Congregation Beth Israel, Bangor.

Funeral services will be held today at 2 p. m. at the Jewish Chapel, Center Street.
