

GERTRUDE GOVER

NEW YORK and BANGOR — Gertrude Gover, 90, died Thursday, June 8, 1995, after a brief illness. She was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., the daughter of Harry and Rachael Schiffer. She was a teacher in New York City for 42 years. Mrs. Gover was a member of Beth Israel Synagogue and Hadassah and Beth Israel Sisterhoods. Surviving are one son, Richard L. Gover of Hauppauge, N.Y.; one daughter, Roberta Mogul of Bangor; five grandchildren, Steven and his wife, Darlene, of Bangor, Carolyn and her husband, David, of East Northport, N.Y., Jimmy, Joanne and Tzvia, all of New York City; three great-grandchildren, Cayla and Daria, both of E. Northport and Taylor of Bangor. Funeral services will be held 10 a.m. Sunday, June 11, in the Epstein Room of the Beth Israel Synagogue, 144 York St., Bangor, with Rabbi Joseph Schonberger officiating. Interment will be in Beth Israel Cemetery. Memorial week will be observed 7-9 p.m. Sunday and 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Monday through Thursday at 20 Pleasantview Ave., Bangor. Contributions in her memory may be made to Beth Israel Synagogue, 144 York St., Bangor. Arrangements by Brookings-Smith, Bangor.