

HYMAN H. GORDON

Hyman H. Gordon, 82, prominent Bar Harbor merchant for many years and a resident of 12 School Street in that community, died Thursday evening at a Bar Harbor rest home following a long illness.

He was born in Lithuania in 1884, the son of Samuel and Fannie Gordon. Mr. Gordon was a member of the Bar Harbor lodge of Odd Fellows.

Surviving are a son, Irvin Gordon of Manchester, Conn.; a daughter, Mrs. Phyllis G. Richardson of Groton, Conn.; a brother, Isidore Gordon of Rockland; several grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at Jewish Community Chapel on Center Street, Bangor, today at 1 p. m. Rabbi A. H. Freedman of Congregation Beth Israel will officiate. Interment will be in Beth Israel Cemetery.