

HERMAN JACOBSON

BANGOR — Herman Jacobson, age 78, unexpectedly died at his residence, 36 Mt. Hope Avenue, Oct. 15. He was born in Lithuania October 4, 1895, the son of Philip and Baile Jacobson. He was the former proprietor of Dairy Frost in Bangor and Brewer. In the past 11 years he was employed as cashier at the M & M Coffee Shop. He was a member of Congregation Beth Israel, the Zionist Organization of America and Senior Citizens Club. He is survived by his wife Fannie (Bakst) Jacobson of Bangor, four daughters, Mrs. Merle Segal, Bangor, Mrs. Ruth Freeman, Mayfield Heights, Ohio, Mrs. Miriam Stevens, San Diego, Calif., Mrs. Tibey Elfman, Bangor; one sister, Mrs. Sarah Jolovitz, and one brother Henry Jacobson both of Waterville; eight grandchildren, several neices and nephews. Funeral services will be held October 16, at 11 a.m. at the Jewish Chapel on Center Street, with Rabbi Irving Margolis officiating. In lieu of flowers friends who wish may contribute to the United Jewish Appeal, in care of the Jewish Community Council, Bangor. Memorial Week will be observed at 36 Mt. Hope Avenue, on the evening of October 20 through October 26.