DECLARATION OF FAITH

I hereby declare my desire to accept the principles of the Jewish religion, to follow its practices and ceremonies, and to become a member of the Jewish people. I do this of my own free will, with an understanding of the significance of the tenets and practices of Judaism, and full realization of the commitment I herewith assume.

I pray that my present conviction may guide me through life, that I may be worthy of the sacred tradition and fellowship which I now join. As I am thankful for the privileges thus bestowed upon me, I pray that I may always remain conscious of the duties which are mine as a member of the House of Israel.

I declare my determination to maintain a Jewish home. Should I be blessed with male children, I pledge to bring them into the Covenant of Abraham. I further pledge to rear all children with whom God may bless me in loyalty to the Jewish faith and its practices.

HEAR, O ISRAEL: THE LORD IS OUR GOD, THE LORD ALONE.

Praised be His sovereign glory forever.

John E. Egan
