

MRS. DAVID BRAIDY

Mrs. Braidy, Of Bangor Is Dead At 76

The death of Mrs. Lillian Ida Leavitt Braidy, 76, widow of David Braidy, occurred Friday in a local hospital after a brief illness.

Born in Lithuania, Mrs. Braidy had been a resident of Bangor for over 60 years. She was deeply interested in local community and charitable organizations and included among her affiliations life membership in Hadassah, the Eastern Maine General Hospital Auxiliary, and the Beth Israel Sisterhood. Mrs. Braidy was also a charter member of the B'nai B'rith Auxiliary as well as a member of the Sisterhood of the Jewish Community Council.

Surviving are: three daughters, Mrs. Albert S. Rothseid, Andover, Mass., Mrs. Stanley S. Rudman, Brookline, Mass., and Mrs. Herbert Steinberg, Brockton, Mass.; three brothers, Benjamin and Morris Leavitt, Bangor, and Samuel Leavitt, Flushing, N. Y.; three sisters, Mrs. David Robinson, Saco, Miss Gertrude Leavitt, Bangor, and Miss Rebecca Leavitt, Brookline, Mass.; six grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at the Jewish Funeral Chapel on Center Street, Sunday at 1 p.m. with Rabbi A. H. Freedman officiating. Interment will be in Beth Israel cemetery.

Memorial week will be observed at the residence.