

MAURICE ALPERT

Maurice Alpert, Morin Company Owner, Is Dead

The death of Maurice Alpert, 61, of 35 Falvey Street, Bangor, owner and president of Morin Tobacco Company, occurred Dec. 2 in a Bangor convalescent home following a long illness.

He was a graduate of the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and was a registered pharmacist in the State of Maine. He was a member of Congregation Beth Israel and past president of B'nai B'rith. He was past president of the Bangor Bridge Club and was a member of the B.P.O.E. and the Bangor Lions Club.

Surviving are: two sons, Bernard Alpert, Los Angeles, Calif., and Michael Alpert, Bangor; two daughters, Miss Francine Alpert, Boston, Mass., and Mrs. Cynthia Sneider, Chicago, Ill.; two brothers, Dr. Sidney Alpert, Chicago, Ill., and Myer Alpert, Los Angeles, Calif.; two sisters.

Mrs. Sylvia Duze, Long Beach, N. J., and Mrs. Ada Tussing, Presque Isle; two grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at noon today in the Jewish Funeral Chapel, Center Street, Bangor, with Rabbi Irving Margolies of Congregation Beth Israel officiating.

Memorial week will be observed at 35 Falvey Street.