

MAX E. GOTLIB

Max E. Gotlib, 57, of 52 Grant

Street, a long-time Bangor grocery store owner, died suddenly Friday night at his home.

Born in Russia the son of Jacob and Esther Gotlib, he came to the United States as a boy and attended Bangor grade and high schools. He operated the Queen City Market at Center and Cumberland Streets for several years and prior to this operated a market under the same name in Pickering Square for many years.

A veteran of World War Two, he served with the Army Medical Corp's Fifth Army in Italy. He was a member of Beth Israel Synagogue and B'nai B'rith.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Beatrice (Sawyer) Gotlib of Bangor; a son, Sumner of Bangor; a daughter, Phyllis of Bangor; a brother, Aaron of Bangor; a sister, Mrs. Eva Chason of Bangor; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 1 p.m. at the Jewish Community Chapel on Center Street. Rabbi Avraham H. Freedman will officiate.