

MILDRETH A. RAPAPORT

BANGOR — Mildreth A. Rapaport, 65, of Bangor, cherished wife, mother, grandmother and sister, died Aug. 29, 1996. She was born in Boston, July 8, 1931, the daughter of Samuel and Sadie (Bronstein) Finn. She had a great commitment to education and received a BS degree in education from the University of Maine, Orono. Mildreth taught at St. John's, Hermon and Dedham elementary schools, and had a lengthy career in real estate and appraising. Her involvement with Beth Israel Synagogue, the YWCA, and lifelong friends were very important to her. Mildreth is survived by her loving husband, A. David Rapaport of Bangor; her three children, Scott G. Rapaport and his wife, Patti of Brewer, Jayne S. Gandler and her husband, William of Rockville, Md., and Susan R. Sacks and her husband, Henry of Cambridge, Mass.; her brother, David Finn and his wife, Ruth of Reston, Va.; her sister-in-law, Sandra E. Finn of Bangor; her adored grandsons, Sam and Ben Rapaport of Brewer. She now rests in peace with her parents and brothers, Albert, George and Mitchell. Mildreth will always be remembered by family and friends as a most lovely lady. Funeral services will be held 12 noon Sunday, Sept. 1, at the Jewish Funeral Chapel, 118 Center St., Bangor, with Rabbi Henry Isaacs officiating. Interment will be in Beth Israel Cemetery. The family will be observing Shiva at 5 Elm St., Bangor, for the memorial week Sunday through Friday afternoon. Gifts in her memory may be made to the Beth Israel Synagogue, Talmud Torah Education Fund, P.O. Box 1726, Bangor, Maine 04402. A service of Brookings-Smith, Bangor.
