

FUNERAL SERVICES

Funeral services for Mrs. Mathalie Koritzky, wife of Jack Koritzky of Dover-Foxcroft, were held Sunday afternoon at the Jewish Chapel in Bangor. Rabbi A. H. Freedman of the Beth Israel Synagogue officiated. Interment was in the Beth Israel Cemetery in Bangor.

Mrs. Koritzky died in a Dover-Foxcroft hospital Saturday following an illness of several months.

She was born in Bangor, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Glazier, and was graduated from Bangor High School.

She had resided in Dover-Foxcroft for the past 33 years.

She was a member of the Eastern Star, Rebekahs, Cosmopolitan Club, Percolator Club of Dover-Foxcroft, the Pine Tree Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women, the Bangor Chapter of Hadassah, and the Beth Israel Synagogue, all of Bangor.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two brothers, Joseph Glazier and Frank Glazier, both of Bangor; by four sisters, Mrs. Edward Morris, Mrs. Mary Levy, Mrs. Benjamin Leavitt, and Mrs. Benjamin Rich, all of Bangor. Several nieces and nephews also survive.
