

RUTH L. GOLDSMITH

BANGOR and ROCKLAND — Ruth L. Goldsmith, beloved mother and grandmother, died June 10, 1995, at a local health-care center. She was born in Bangor, the daughter of Wolfe and Anna (Fine) Lipsky. Mrs. Goldsmith was married to the late Keith Goldsmith and resided in Rockland, Maine for more than 40 years, where she worked with her husband in the family business, Economy Clothes. She was a member of Hadas Yashuran Synagogue of Rockland, where she taught Sunday school for many years and was active in the production of holiday plays. Ruth was a member of the Hadas Yashuran Sisterhood. She was an active member of the Hadasah and the Lady Lions of Rockland. Ruth was an avid bridge player, an accomplished painter, and a master at Scrabble and puzzles, most importantly, a true friend. She is survived by a daughter and son-in-law, Barbara E. and Mel Braverman of Bangor; three grandchildren, Sally and her husband, Steven Rodstrom, Robert and his wife, Denise Emple, Susan and her husband, David Lubner; four great-grandchildren, Eric, Lindsey and Kevin Rodstrom, and Hannah Lubner; several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by a daughter, Mary Jean Goldsmith; three brothers and two sisters, Samuel Lipsky, Edith Lipsky, Betty Lipsky, George Lipsky and Arthur Lipsky. Funeral services will be held 12 noon Monday at the Beth Israel Synagogue, 144 York St., Bangor, with Rabbi Joseph Schonberger officiating. Interment will be in Beth Israel Cemetery. Memorial week will be observed from 7-9 p.m. Monday through Thursday at 40 Bruce Rd., Bangor. Friends may contribute in her memory to a charity of one's choice. Arrangements by Brookings-Smith, Bangor.
