

RALPH SIMES

Ralph Simes, 52, proprietor of the Third Street Market, died suddenly in his store Wednesday noon.

He was born in Boston, November 9, 1909. He was a member of the Bangor Lodge of Elks.

He is survived by his widow, Blanche of Bangor; two sons, Robert and David, and three daughters, Lynn, Charlotte and Dawn, all of Bangor; four sisters, Ethel and Florence Simes and Mrs. Sarah Potash, all of Cambridge, Mass. and Mrs. Lottie Harrison of Silver Springs, Md.

Funeral services will be held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Jewish Community Chapel, Center Street, with Rabbi A. H. Freedman officiating. Interment will be in the family lot, Beth Israel cemetery.