

SAMUEL RICHARDSON

Samuel Richardson, 75, a native of Russia who lived virtually all his life in Bangor, died Sunday evening at his home on Middle Street after a long illness.

For a number of years, he had been employed by the First National Stores. Later he worked for the Eastern Maine General Hospital.

Mr. Richardson, a veteran of World War I, was a member of the American Legion, and of Beth Israel Synagogue.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Samuel Lelansky of Portland and Mrs. Abraham Emple of Bangor; nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Jewish Community Chapel on Center Street, Bangor.
