

MRS. SARAH G. SHAPIRO
BANGOR — Sarah G. Shapiro, 92, wife of the late Max Shapiro, died May 27, 1984, at a Bangor hospital. She was born in Russia, Jan. 21, 1892, the daughter of Isaac and Shifra Zitaner. Mrs. Shapiro was a member of Congregation Beth Abraham and the Beth Abraham Sisterhood, a life member of the Hadassah, a member of B'nai B'rith and the Jewish Senior Citizens, all of Bangor. Surviving are three sons, Abraham Shapiro and Dr. Benjamin L. Shapiro, both of Bangor, Philip D. Shapiro of Newton, Mass.; two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Chethik of Miami Beach, Fla., and Mrs. Herbert (Rosalie) Trager of Bangor; a brother, Clarence Zitaner of Malden, Mass.; two sisters, Annabelle Hearst of Medford, Mass., and Elsie Weisman of Newton, Mass.; 15 grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews. Mrs. Shapiro was predeceased by a son, Clarence Shapiro. Funeral services were held Monday, May 28, 1984, at the Jewish Funeral Chapel, Bangor, with Rabbi Henry Isaacs officiating. Interment was in Beth Israel Cemetery, Bangor. Memorial week will be observed at the family residence, 92 Forest Ave., Bangor. Friends who wish may contribute in her memory to the Parkinson's Disease Foundation, William Black Building, Columbia University, 650 West 168th St., New York, N.Y., 10032. Arrangements by Brookings-Smith.