

9/21/58 SAMUEL SLON

The remains of Samuel Slon, 71, who died Sunday at Richmond, Va., arrived in Bangor Tuesday evening.

Mr. Slon was employed for several years as sales manager of the New Central Furniture Company in Bangor before the death of his wife, Mabel, in 1956. He then went to live with a son, Lawrence, in West Virginia.

He also is survived by another son, Sidney Slon, New York City, and several grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 11 o'clock this forenoon at the Jewish Community Chapel on Center Street, conducted by Rabbi Avraham H. Freedman of Congregation Beth Israel.
