

WILLIAM H. EMPLÉ

William H. Emplé, 64, of 173 Essex Street, treasurer of the Bangor Egg Company for nearly 40 years, died Thursday afternoon at a local hospital.

Born in Russia, he came to the United States as a child. He was educated in Bangor grammar schools and attended Bangor High. A veteran of army service during World War I, he served as treasurer of the Bangor Egg Co., Inc., until his retirement two years ago.

Surviving are his wife, Lillian E. (Rudman) Emplé of Bangor; a son, Arthur S. of Bangor; a daughter, Miss Diane Emplé of Bangor; his mother, Mrs. Gertrude Emplé of Bangor; two sisters, Mrs. M. Kleinfeld of Palisades, N. J., and Miss Sally Emplé of Bangor.

Remains were taken to the Libby funeral home, 61 Center Street, Brewer.

Funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock today at the United Jewish Chapel, Center Street.